

22 Road shows get bigger in China

56 Can Durst beat the rap?

58 Hamptons gear up for summer season

82 Hudson Yards' biggest holdouts

144 Movies get star role in lawsuits

THE REAL DEAL

www.TheRealDeal.com

NEW YORK REAL ESTATE NEWS

Vol. 13 No. 4 April 2015 $3.00

REAL ESTATE'S RISING STARS

The 35-and-under crowd that's breaking records, launching firms and generally shaking up the industry p42

When will the boom go bust?

Why economists say this real estate upswing is on more solid footing than the last two cycles in New York p50

Corcoran vs. Corcoran Sunshine

The firm's new development success has alienated some top-producing resale agents, but changes are afoot p35

Penciling out NYC's priciest penthouses

Crunching the numbers on developers' profits at the city's most expensive condos p54

SOUTH FLORIDA REPORT

Halpern launches sales

JMH Development, the New York firm founded by Jason Halpern,

The five-story property is the first in Miami designed by Thomas Juul-Hansen. In New York, the Group's 210 West 77th Street.

The project will include one- to four-bedroom units, with four duplex condos and three penthouses, priced at $1.2 million to $9 million. One Sotheby's International Realty is marketing the project.

JMH paid $13 million for the site. Construction will begin by the end of this year, with expected delivery in mid-2017, Halpern said.

A rendering of Three Hundred Collins and Jason Halpern, right.

last month launched sales of Three Hundred Collins, a 19-unit luxury condo in Miami Beach's South of Fifth neighborhood.

Danish designer-architect did the interiors of One57, and is the architect on 11 Beach Street in Tribeca, 505 West 19th Street and the Naftali