Architect Thomas Juul-Hansen and JMH Development have unveiled plans for a 19-unit boutique condo project planned in Miami Beach, Fla.'s exclusive South of Fifth neighborhood. The contemporary, five-story structure, called Three Hundred Collins, is designed to blend with the natural environment, while reflecting the art and culture of SoFi. The development offers one- to four-bedroom residences, ranging from 995 sf to 3,700 sf, and from $1.2 million to more than $9 million. Amenities include private gardens, 24-hour doorman, fitness center, valet parking, beach concierge, and a 75-foot rooftop pool. The project is scheduled for completion in 2017.
