

Famed South Beach Restaurateur Purchases Luxury Home at Three Hundred Collins.

Famed South Beach pioneer and restaurateur Myles Chefetz, the name behind some of the city's most beloved brands such as "Prime 112", has purchased a $3 million corner unit at JMH Development's Three Hundred Collins, the first luxury residential development in Miami by Thomas Juul-Hansen.

The expansive, $3 million corner townhome with double height ceilings (nearly 19 feet in the great room) has a private entry and two parking spaces. The unit features the most spacious yard in the building and quite possibly one of the most spacious yards of any condominium in South of Fifth. The landscaped garden is elevated 13 feet off of the ground and boasts an elegant Summer Kitchen.

The residence offers three levels of living, making it feel much like a standalone home within a luxury condominium setting.

ONE Sotheby's International Realty represented the transaction.

"Myles is a pioneer in the area, he was there before it was South of Fifth. To have him believe in Jason's vision and become a part of Three Hundred Collins is the ultimate compliment. Our sales team is truly honored and knows he will be equally pleased when his Townhouse is delivered". Said Dina Goldentayer, Director of Sales for Three Hundred Collins.

QUINN