Good Intentions

Myk Likhov, founder of the Beach's famed Green Monkey yoga studio, is injecting his spirit-infused concepts into Modern Om, a lifestyle brand that includes apparel, accessories, home goods, and stationery. His goal: to meld ancient spirituality with modern design. "Our objective is to create items that remind you of your intention," says Likhov, who is regularly tapped by Soho Beach House, The Standard hotel, Quintessentially, and other destinations for his expertise on wellness programming. "Whether that intention is to feel more vitality, to be more passionate, to find your purpose, to become more loving, to express yourself, or to feel more connected."

Nest in Show

Trends may come and go, but the Yardley nesting tables from Arteriors are designed for keeps. Made of hammered black iron coated in a waxed leather-look finish and topped with marble or champagne-colored glass, the three demilune tables are as versatile as they are beautiful. Their rich materials and classic styling add gravitas, functionality, and adaptability to any Miami setting—historic Mediterranean or cutting-edge modern, large or small. Available for $2,355 at Adriana Hoyos, Miami Design District, 4100 NE Second Ave., Miami, 305- 572-9052
