

Three Hundred Collins Miami Beach

Exclusive Luxury Residences at South of Fifth Miami Beach. A Modern Retreat Inside and Out.

Three Hundred Collins, the first luxury residential development in Miami by New York City's "designer for the one percent" Thomas Juul-Hansen, is a 19-unit boutique property nestled within the vibrant and stylish community of Miami Beach's most exclusive residential neighborhood—South of Fifth.

The building was conceptualized to serve as a cool and contemporary sanctuary, seamlessly incorporating the invigorating Florida environment indoors and allowing residents to leave the sights and sounds of South Beach far behind. In accordance with Juul-Hansen's signature Danish flair, the building's minimalist-style amenities are as refreshing as they are chic. In addition to a state-of-the-art fitness center, valet and 24-hour attended lobby with personal service, the building's unique rooftop oasis boasts a 75-foot pool, hot tub and stunning surrounding gardens custom designed by Miami's landscape gurus Urban Robot. Residences priced from $1.7 million to more than $9 million and slated for completion in 2017.
