

UNIQUE HOMES | LIVING IN LUXURY

INTERIOR DESIGNERS RAISE THE ROOF ON NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Higher ceiling heights – now common in all units, not just penthouses – give residents the luxury of natural light with floor-to-ceiling windows, breathtaking views comparable to those available higher floors and the ability to decorate their spaces with stately fixtures.

Three Hundred Collins, features a limited collection of townhouses featuring expansive open layouts and massive 18'6" ceilings. The 19-unit boutique property is nestled within the stylish community of Miami Beach's exclusive residential South of Fifth neighborhood and conceived by New York City's "designer for the one percent" Thomas Juul-Hansen.
